"Dija Know..."

Joe's newsletter #5

We now offer gluten-free pizza for those who are sensitive to gluten. We tested many many products and decided upon one that is really quite good. If you are GF, please ask your waiter about other GF items that have always been on our menu.

-----

Joe's is now using organically grown New Mexico flour for pastries and pizza and some breads. This is a proud step forward for us, for you.

Here at Joe's we believe so much in what Michael Pollan articulates in his brilliantly written The Omnivore's Dilemma, that we offer it for sale at below retail price. A profound statement, engagingly woven tale.

One of the best of Santa Fe Brewing Company's beers is Oktoberfest due mid September. Remember - every Wednesday, all beers are ½ price!

Our passion for local farmers' products continues stronger than ever after 14 years. At harvest time it is easy to get excited about the colorful sun-ripened veggies and fruits. This is the ONLY time of year that Joe's offers its famous Margherita Pizza and Insalata Caprese. Why? Once you taste it with fresh mozzarella (we make daily) and local succulent heirloom tomatoes ...how could it be any other way??!

Many of you ask who that enthusiastic smiling "chef" is, standing outside in rain, sleet, snow, and searing sun, waving wayward hungry guests in to Joe's. That is Robert. Robert has done more to entice new and returning guests to Joe's than any other marketing medium we have tried. We love him dearly!

The answer is YES. The question is – "have we been duped by the 'organic' label?" A couple of years ago, Congress dumbed down the word organic mainly to allow the importation of so-called organic foods from countries such as China whose labeling laws are much less impeccable even than ours were. So what??
Consequently organic foods produced anywhere and allowed for sale in the U.S. have far less stringent standards than previously. So what??
So...Roland and Sheila have made it a FAR more important criterion to KNOW YOUR GROWER. Far less important is the label ORGANIC. We will choose foods from farmers and ranchers who treat their animals respectfully, who grow their produce with love and care over one who can merely show us a piece of paper – "certified organic".

What the heck is Joe's about anyway? Establishing who you are as a business is not as easy as one would think. We have, from the get-go, provided a comfortable unpretentious atmosphere combined with uncompromising food quality. Over the years we have found out what we are not – I guess we are not really a diner! Who knew? Santa Feans expected diners to be greasy spoon and cheap. But we remembered the Fog City Diner, Empire Diner – really good food at reasonable prices. So, after 7 years of operation the most succinct way to say it is –

"Joe's, where local farming and great food come together".

In 2008, Joe's spent over $30,000 buying locally produced foods from New Mexico farmers and ranchers, more than any other restaurant or business in Santa Fe and probably in all of New Mexico. The figures are not quite in for 2009, but we may have surpassed that number already by September. This reflects the strength of our commitment to local regional and sustainable food production and industry. This, more than anything else, is what Joe's is all about.

As well, we just happen to have a world-class chef-owner (Roland Richter) at the helm, assuring you that all these good products are exquisitely prepared.

Did you know...
In the 70's Americans spent 30% of their household budget on food. Today that has been reduced to 18%. Hmm. Give that some thought.
